MOTION FOR FINAL DECREE

The Debtor and Debtor in Possession BROOK ARCHITECTURE (the “Debtor”), by and through its attorneys at Forrest L. Ingram, P.C., and pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 350(a), Fed.R.Bankr.P. 3022, and Local Rule 3022-1, hereby applies for entry of a final order and decree, closing this Chapter 11 case. In support of this Application, the Debtor states:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This Application constitutes a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) and (O). Venue is proper pursuant to §§ 1408 and 1409.
2. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are 11 U.S.C. § 350(a), Fed.R.Bankr.P. 3022 and Local Rule 3022-1.
3. The Debtor filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (“Bankruptcy Code”) on September 19, 2008.
4. The Debtor’s Second Amended Plan of Reorganization (the “Plan”) was confirmed on July 7, 2009.
5. Section 350(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “[a]fter an estate is fully administered and the court has discharged the trustee, the court shall close the case.”

6. Although the meaning of "fully administered" is not settled, courts have determined that it means "the point when the estate reaches substantial consummation as defined by section 1101(2) of the bankruptcy code." In re Wade, 991 F.2d 402, 407 n.2 (7th Cir. 1992).

Section 1101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

- (2) 'substantial consummation' means –
 - (A) transfer of all or substantially all of the property proposed by the plan to be transferred;
 - (B) assumption by the debtor or by the successor to the debtor under the plan of the business or of the management of all or substantially all of the property dealt with by the plan; and
 - (C) commencement of distribution under the plan.

In addition, courts have directed that the following events should be considered when determining if an estate has been fully administered:

- 1) when the order confirming the plan has become final, 2) when deposits have been distributed, 3) when payments under the plan have been commenced and 4) when all motions, contested matters, and adversary proceedings have been resolved.

Wade, 991 F.2d at 407 n.2 (citing In re Mold Makers, Inc., 124 B.R. 766, 768-69 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1990)).

7. Debtor's estate has been fully administered for the following reasons:

- a. the order confirming the plan on July 7, 2009, has become final;
- b. payments under the plan have commenced with the Debtor's $8,951.77 payment to Harris, NA; and,
- c. there are no contested matters and no adversary proceeding to resolve.

8. Payments to the General Unsecured Creditors will begin after Harris, N.A. is paid in full for its secured claim.

9. The Debtor is current in the amounts owed to the United States Trustee's Office.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor and Debtor in Possession prays that this Honorable Court enter a final decree, closing this Chapter 11 case. Debtor asks for such other and further relief as may be just.

Respectfully submitted,
Brook Architecture, Inc.
